

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 111 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 12TH, 1951

Weather Wednesday: high 95, low 66, Rel Hum. 70. . . Peace talks in the Korean situation strike a snag. . . . Remember the Indian Pageant at the boy Scout Camp on Lake Danier tonight at 8 o'clock. It is free to everyone. All visitors should see it. . . . What's all this talk about parking meters and one hour parking for? There's plenty of parking space on Trade street" said upstairs professional man the other day to President Matt O' Shields of the Chamber of Commerce. "Yes said Mr. O'Shields, and I want to keep plenty of parking space available all the time on Trade street so customers can trade in the stores, do their banking, see the doctors etc. Thanks to the cooperation of the business people and their staffs and to the police officers, reasonable parking space is now being made available. . . . Remember the Square Dance at the Congregational Church House Friday night at 8 o'clock. It is free to everybody.

ROTARY MEETS FRIDAY

George Vance will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall Hotel.

Carroll Rogers Reappointed To State Sanitation Board

Governor Kerr Scott has appointed six members of the State stream sanitation committee which was created by the 1951 legislature to curb stream pollution in the State. Carroll P. Rogers was one of the members appointed.

Mr. Rogers was a member of the initial state committee appointed by Governor Scott before the legislature created the committee to work within the State Board of Health. The committee has the chief engineer of the State Board of Health and the chief engineer of the water resources and engineering division of the Development of Conservation and Development as ex-officio members.

Mr. Rogers was a member of engineering division of the Department of Conservation and Development for many years and has been active in developing the mineral resources of the state as well as industrial and business enterprises and recreational facilities.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. LeRoy Bargo of Detroit and Mill Spring is a patient at St. Luke's Hospital. Patients discharged include Jack Constant, Saluda R-1, and Wm. Robert Partain, Columbus.

FEDERATION PICNIC

Columbus.—"The Farmers Federation returned $12,500 to the farmers of Western North Carolina through the various marketing departments every day last year", declared James G. K. McClure, president, at the annual Polk County Federation picnic on Wednesday at the Stearns school.

Continued on Back Page