TUESDAY, JULY 31ST, 1951

Weather Monday: High 87, low 67, Rel. Hum. 65 . . . Danger of all-out war is increasing says Gen. Marshall as Russians build up their supplies. That means more blood will be needed for the wounded in Korea and elsewhere by Army and Navy doctors. The Bloodmobile will be in Saluda Wednesday afternoon and all people in this section are invited to go up and contribute blood . . . Funds are still needed to pay for the swimming pier and beach at the Tryon Girl Scout camp. B. L. Ballenger gave the two valuable lots and a number of men have contributed time and money to make it available, but a few of the parents of girls have contributed. Most of the contributions of time and money have come from bachelors, childless couples or couples with grown children. It is possible that parents of cute little girls who are Scouts or will be Scouts are not interested enough to give a few dollars to provide a place where their children can learn to swim and enjoy water sports later on? Thousands of lives are lost by drowning every year because the victims did not know how to swim. Your contribution may save a life. Even a dollar would show interest and a spirit of cooperation. People like to help those who help themselves. If you

GOAT SHOW AUGUST 25 AT HARMON FIELD

The Second Annual Dairy Goat Show of the Western Carolinas Dairy Goat Association will be held at Harmon Field, Tryon, on Saturday afternoon, Aug. 25th. Admission free. Public invited.

Dr. Stanley G. Bandeem, of Louisville, Ky., a director of the American Milk Goat Record Association, will be the official judge.

Both grades and purebreds of the four breeds, Saanen, Hoggenburg, Nubian and French Alpine, will be represented. There will be classes for all ages, from mature does to kids, but bucks will not be eligible. Entries are invited by the public, whether members or not of the Western Carolinas-Dairy Goat Association. Cash prizes as well as ribbons will be awarded.

Further information and entry blanks can be obtained by applying to either Mrs. Ernest P. Hall Jr., Box 216, Columbus, or the secretary, Miss Virginia Vida, 1501 Greenville Highway, Hendersonville, N. C.

PRESBYTERIAN PICNIC

The annual picnic of the Tryon Presbyterian Church will be held Wednesday at Harmon Field. A recreational program will start at 5 p. m., with supper served at 7 p. m. Everyone is to take their picnic supper. Anyone desiring transportation to the Field may call 45-J.

Columbus took a doubleheader from Cranston Sunday at Columbus 15-7 and 10-6.
