

GAZE—TYNG

A recent issue of the New York Herald Tribune reported the marriage of Mrs. Lucien H. Tyng of 200 E. 66th St. to Dr. Harry Gaze at Portsmouth, New Hampshire on July 28th.

The bridegroom, Dr. Thomas Henry Gaze, better known as Dr. Harry Gaze, is a lecturer and world traveller, who was guest minister at Carnegie Hall during Dr. Emmett Fox's sabbatical year.

Mrs. Tyng, widow of Lucien Hamilton Tyng, prominent financial, social and philanthropic leader of New York City whom she married in 1933, was the former Olive Wyndham, leading actress of many Broadway productions. Mr. Tyng died in 1948 before completing the new home on Skyuka Mountain near Tryon.

Dr. and Mrs. Gaze are spending their honeymoon in York Harbor, Maine. Her sister, Janet Beecher, a former movie star, was present at the wedding.

Among the famous plays in which the bride took leading roles as Olive Wyndham were "Dinner At 8", "It Happened to Mary", "The Green Goddess," "The Man From Home."

The bride sold her Tryon home several months ago to Lawrence Bradley of New York.
