

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 236 TRYON, N. C.. THURSDAY, AUGUST 16, 1951

Weather Wednesday: High 89, low 68, Rel. Hum. 70. . . U. N. peace negotiators in deadlock . . .

Chicago police hunting for escaped murderer . . . John D. Rockefeller Jr., 77, married Mrs. Martha Baird Allen, 56, former concert singer. She was the widow of a close friend. The first Mrs. Rockefeller died in 1948 . . . Tonight is the night of the Duplicate Bridge Tournament and of the Indian pageant at Lake Lanier . . . Help! Help! is the cry heard some times from a drowning person or from a person in a burning building. That's where the rescuer comes to the rescue if the community is fortunate enough to have one. The Tryon Volunteer Firemen are trying to buy one but are still short of funds. Donations may be left at The Bulletin office or given to any fireman . . . A prominent Tryon bridge player went down seven tricks in No Trumps the other day, and he held all four aces . . . The August 24th issue of Collier's Magazine has a feature story on the soldiers training at Fort Benning. One of the pictures shows Pfc. James Pruitt from Tryon, N. C., crawling on his stomach and completely camouflaged learning infiltration tactics . . . The round table,

Continued On Back Page

Junior Dairy Show Planned For September 10th

The Polk County 4-H Dairy Foundation Committee met recently with extension agents and laid plans for the fifth annual 4-H dairy exhibit.

Members of the Foundation Committee are Frank Gallimore, Kiwanis representative; J. H. Gibbs, Rotary club; C. D. Stevens, mayor; Matt O'Shields, Chamber of Commerce; Clyde Tharpe and Dr. Gordon Graham, Lions Club.

The local show date will be September 10th from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m., at Harmon Field. The district show will be at Enka at the new show pavilion on Sept. 11.

The Dairy Foundation plans to make this a general farmers get-together with a picnic lunch at Harmon Field on show day.

Matt O'Shields, president of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce is chairman of the finance committee.

HOSPITAL NEWS

The following patients were admitted to St. Luke's Hospital: J. W. Pate, Landrum; Miss Minerva Avant, Tryon; Gray Feagan, Columbus. The following patients were discharged from the hospital: Franklin Pace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lotan Pace of Tryon, and Mrs. George Greene, Route 1, Campobello, S. C.

There will be a meeting at the Stearns school in Columbus at 1 p. m., on Friday, August 17th, to discuss the "Family Farm Policy Review" and to determine the policy and procedure for conducting the review.