

(Est. 1-31-26)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 238 TRYON, N. C.

MONDAY, AUGUST 20, 1951

Weather Friday: High 88, low 63, rain .32, Rel. Hum. 67; Saturday high 86, low 68, rain .02, Rel. Hum. 70; Sunday high 87, low 65, Rel. Hum. 63 . . . The Spartanburg Herald Sunday showed a picture of General Swift awarding a battlefield commission to E. G. Wofford of Landrum. Lieut. Wofford is serving with the 89th Medium Tank Battalion as platoon leader . . . Billie Schilleter, who has been in Europe with his parents, Col. and Mrs. Wm. A. Schilleter for the past two years is expected in Tryon today for a visit with Vance McCown before going to Sewanee Military Academy this fall . . . The morning passenger train was held up about 15 minutes today for one of the largest express shipments ever received in Tryon. There were five truck loads and the flagman, mail man, express agent, railway agent, truck driver and others pitched in to help remove the stuff from the train. During the process one tall box for Clifton Murphy's new house struck the signal cord that runs through the train and started the big Diesels, but yells from onlookers or a new pull on the cord stopped the train, not in time to save the big box from hitting the ground. There were paints and paints for Tryon Builders Supply

Continued On Back Page

TRAVELING ROTARIANS

R. M. Schiele's Travelogue and color films, covering the Monument of Arches and the land of the Navajo, was the best of the many of his which I have seen and heard. He really took us away from civilization into the desert country of southern Utah. The scenic effects were truly gorgeous in color and grandeur. His pictures of the everyday activities of the Indians interesting and natural arches, eroded from sand stone by the shifting sands, looked like a carved work by human sculptors.

We saw a Trading Post, conducted by a man who has spent his life helping the Indians to better themselves, with a gas tank 100 miles from the nearest railroad. He operates over the desert country in a Jeppmobile station wagon with over size tires and gets about everywhere in it. The horse and the burro are used extensively by the natives for transport.

Visiting Rotarians were: Ted Hugler, Sanford, N. C.; Tom Mabry and J. C. Bush, Inman, S. C.; Harry M. Sloate, V.P. of the Hartford, CT Club; W. N. Shepherd and Fred Crumbley, Hendersonville; H. M. Fernside, Palatka, Fla.; Roy Purvis, Gainesville, Fla.; guests included "Shorty" McDonald Jr., Eugene Merk and Harry Bridges, N. C. State auditor.—JOS

LEPPARD AT KIWANIS

Rev. LeRoy Leppard, pastor of the Columbus Baptist Church will be in charge of the Tryon Kiwanis Club program Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall.