

Dubbins Joins "Mr. Roberts"

Don Dubbins, a leading Vagabond player of the Lake Summit Playhouse, left by plane today for New York City rehearsals, of "Mr. Roberts," which stars Todd Andrews, and in which Don plays a top role of Ensign Pulver, scheduled for a 9-month tour beginning in September.

His vacated role of Spider, the fight trainer, in "The Milky Way" opening Tuesday, goes to Stanley Arborough, who, in 1946 played Dr. Einstein here in that summer season's production of "Arsenic And Old Lace."

A resident of Cincinnati, O., who summers on Lake Oseola, Arborough has a long record of character roles, from his leads with the University of Cincinnati to numbers of seasons with the Vicksburg, Miss., Little Theatre.

This week's art exhibit in the Green Room of the Playhouse is the work of Asheville's art and music critic, C. R. Sumner.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Flynn have as guests Mr. Flynn's sister, Mrs. T. A. Pendleton of Dunedin, Fla., and her friend, Mrs. Sibyl Wilson.

Miss Kathryn Kerhulas is spending her vacation in Nassau.
