FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1951

Weather Thursday: High 89, low 65, rain .09, Rel. Hum. 70 . . . The Chicago Tribune of Aug. 19th has an interesting story about Castle Park, Mich., and the part the Carter P. Browns have had in developing the resort since they went there as bride and groom at the 19 and 23. Both had been summer visitors there when children. Now their children and grandchildren are having a part in the activities of the Castle. Carter Brown Jr., helps with the administration and Austin and his wife, Sally, keep things humming with play classes, summer theatricals, dances, horse shows and other entertainment. The interesting story goes on for nearly two columns of the society pages telling about the history and activities of the Castle. The Browns will reopen their Pine Crest Inn at Tryon in October . . . The current issue of Life magazine has a full page picture of Miss Betty Brown, sparkling with fire as millions of volts of electricity went through her body. She is the daughter of Bob Brown of Asheville, former publicity man for the Farmers Federation, who is now conducting a program of science and magic in schools all over the nation. . . . Architectural Forum the Magazine of Building in its issue has two pages of
