Vol. 24—No. 248 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1951

Weather Friday high 94, low 58, Rel. Hum. 60; Saturday high 93, low 60, Rel. Hum. 60; Sunday high 90, low 62, Rel. Hum. 60. Rainfall for August 2.88 inches; minus from normal 3.42. The shortage is felt all over this section and many wells and springs have gone dry. . . . Today is LABOR DAY, honoring all who work and that just about includes everybody now. The doctor, lawyer, preacher, financier, farmer, mechanic and others are all laborers. College graduates do janitor work and many men who never graduated from high school head big businesses. The important thing today is to train our people in the work they like and are best fitted for in order for them to get the most happiness out of life and be of most service to their fellowmen.

. . . . The Social Committee of the Tryon Country Club is directing entertainment at the club today for members. A Scotch four-some tournament will begin at 2 p. m. Swimming, tennis, etc., will be available and a picnic supper will be served at 6 o'clock. Each member taking sufficient food for the number in his party. . . . John Stratford of Spartanburg and Tryon, has gone to the University of South Carolina for his freshman year. John was a football star and
