

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 249 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1951

Weather Monday: High 95, low 63, Rel. Hum. 52 . . . Polk County had no wrecks or fatal accidents during the Labor Day week-end despite the heavy traffic over the highways, according to Patrolman W. R. Boyles. At the dangerous Mill Spring crossing where a "STOP" light is soon to be erected Patrolman E. M. Cowan arrested half a dozen motorists for failing to STOP; also one motorist who was clowning . . . Tryon bridge players and those from other communities who play at the Congregational church house here on Thursdays made a good showing at the big tournament in Asheville over the week-end. The Asheville Times commenting on one of the group's said, "Burrow, young Asheville attorney, is a product of the sensational University of North Carolina group of recent years which has raised Chapel Hill bridge to one of Southern eminence. It is one of the finest young groups in the country, and has produced besides Burrow in recent years the new life masters, Jim Jackson of Tryon, and William B. Woodson of Sellers, S. C. Others of the Chapel Hill group also competing in the Regional are Jim Tapley, J. C. Barefoot, and Bob Edwards." . . . Congratulations to Mrs. Cliff Cairns on making a hole in one

Continued On Back Page

Stratford and Vance Win Trophies In Golf

Mrs. Charles C. Stratford and Mrs. George Vance won the bronze trophies for first place in the Scotch Foursome tournament play Labor Day at the Tryon Country Club. James Ferguson and Charles Stratford won two golf balls for the men's first place, and Miss Jane Brown and Miss Elena Garcia were second.

Following the tournament a picnic supper was served on the porches of the club house where golfers and non golfers took part in the fellowship of the occasion.

During the afternoon many of the young people kept the swimming pool active.

D. H. WRIGHT

D. H. Wright, 62, of Campobello, S. C. Route 2, died at his home Saturday morning. He was a steward in the Landrum Wesleyan Methodist Church. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Gramling Methodist Church.

Among the survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Shields of Green's Creek, and a brother, J. F. Wright of Landrum.

DISASTER FUND TOPPED

Mrs. Paul E. Culberson, secretary of the Polk County Chapter of the American Red Cross reports that donations from the following put the fund over its goal to $501:

Tryon Bank, Nelson Jackson Sr., Mrs. J. A. Feagan, Mrs. Mildred Edwards, Mrs. George Newhall, Susan H. James, Mrs. Louise Hilton's class Congregational Sunday school, Dr. and Mrs. Wylie, Mrs. Jessie Ames, Mrs. Reid.