TUESDAY, SEPT. 11TH, 1951

Weather Monday: High 82, low 51, Rel. Hum. 53 . . . Welcome to the Crusade for Freedom Motorcade passing through Polk County today on its way across the State of North Carolina from Murphy to Manteo issuing a call to all citizens to rally to defeat Russian propaganda by broadcasting the truth behind the lines of the Iron Curtain. The motorcade is in charge of Miss Phoebe Norton of Raleigh who is mistress of ceremonies. The motorcade is escorted through each county by the State Highway Patrol. The program starts in Tryon today at 1:30 p. m., on Trade Street between Misdine's and Goodyear's. Programs at Brevard and Hendersonville were held this morning and this afternoon the motorcade moves on to Forest City for a performance there at 3:30. General Clay is the national head of the Crusade. Harold Stassen is national director; Reuben Robertson of Canton is chairman of the two Carolinas and James G. K. McClure for Western North Carolina. Contributions may be sent to John G. Landrum Jr., at Tryon Bank & Trust Co., The Bulletin office and dropped anonymously in coin collection boxes at various places throughout the county . . . In his address at the 4-H Club Junior
