

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 255 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 12, 1951

Weather Tuesday: High 85, low 61, Rel. Hum. 65 . . . Congratulations to the Polk County 4-H Club members on the splendid showing their calves made in the Asheville show. Those friends of young people who are contributing prizes will feel richly rewarded . . . The Crusade for Freedom Motorcade came to Polk County Tuesday enroute across North Carolina from Murphy to Manteo. The motorcade was met at each county line by the Highway Patrol of the district and escorted to place of performance. Mayor C. D. Stevens and the Tryon Police Department did a good job of setting off a section of Trade Street and routing traffic across the railroad. Over 100 Tryon high school students joined the crowd in front of Foodland to attend the program. Miss Phoebe Norton, Raleigh radio commentator, was mistress of ceremonies and told of the purpose of the Crusade for Freedom: to unite our friends behind the iron curtain and to give them hope to resist the Russian lies and take a stand for freedom. Two balloons were released from a special truck demonstrating how millions of leaflets are being sent over the iron curtain. A recorded talk by Drew Pearson was given over the public address system telling the effect this propaganda is

Continued on Back Page

POLK DAIRY CALVES WIN AT ASHEVILLE SHOW

The grand champion of the Jersey breed was won by Roy Jack's Pierce Motor Acceleration at the Western North Carolina Junior Dairy Show held near Asheville Tuesday. The Asheville Citizen today had a picture of the cow held by Kermit Nichols of Tryon R-1. Roy was ill and could not be present.

Jimmy Martin, who won a blue ribbon for best Holstein, also took first place in show for fitting.

The showing of all Polk County calves was outstanding. They took 15 first place ribbons, 14 second place winners and two third places.

County Agents Paul Culberson and Earl Carter accompanied the young people to Asheville. The complete list of winners are as follows:

Blue ribbons—Jimmy Martin, Rebecca Cantrell, Dempsey Arledge, Libby Jack, Bobby Joe Fagan, Reba Wilson, Jack Terry Emerson, Annie Powell, Robert Lee Shuford III, Neal Rollins, Roy Jack.

Red ribbons—Nell Dean Smith, Lewis Cantrell, Bobby Gene McCarter, Gerald Stott, Donald Searcy, Charles Earley, Jean Higgins, Wayne Stott, Lucy Rhodes, Marlene McSwain, Billy Tom Ledbetter, Marion Womack, Johnny Shytle, Ray Jackson.

White ribbons—Preston McEntire, Dupree Calvert.

In showmanship of Guernseys, Bobby Gene McCarter got second place. In fitting of Guernseys, Dempsey Arledge took fourth place.

In showmanship of Jerseys with

Continued on Back Page