Vol. 24—No. 256 TRYON, N. C.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 13TH, 1951

Weather Wednesday: High 89, low 52, Rel. Hum. 52 . . . Defense Secretary George C. Marshall has resigned. That was part of his plan as soon as the Jap treaty was completed . . . Former Senator-Congressman Wm. B. Umstead has announced for governor. Asheville area has been expecting D. Hiden Ramsey, Citizen-Times newspaper executive and noted state civic leader to announce or be drafted. Ramsey in addition to being a good business man is also an educator and speaker of note and would take to the governor's office those necessary qualifications of leadership, administrative experience and an understanding of the problems of the people in many walks of life and fields of endeavor. Mr. Umstead is recognized as an able man. Whether he will be challenged by the Ramsey forces is causing speculation . . . Chester Bowles, former Connecticut governor and Ration Administrator has been appointed ambassador to India and Loy W. Henderson named ambassador to Iran . . . Coming down to the local situation many expressions of appreciation have been heard on the way the town officials are making minor improvements that benefit so many people, and also on the improved parking situation . . . The people them-
