THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 257 TRYON, N. C.,

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1951

Weather Thursday: High 85, low 68, rain .46; Rel. Hum. 72. . . The Tryon Chamber of Commerce has spent several hundred dollars this year advertising by folders, radio and otherwise to bring in enough new citizens and business to maintain a needed balance for the prosperity of the community, the success of its various organizations and employment for its citizens. Those men who serve as directors are constantly on the watch for anything that will benefit all the people in this area. They pay their dues of from $20 to $50 per year just the same as everyone else and in addition give much of their time and go to other expense. This is what makes a town. Those businesses who profit by new homes and new customers join the Chamber of Commerce as a matter of good business. The good sports and those who believe in sharing responsibilities as well as benefits are eager to join. And there are others who are civic minded and have no mercenary interests who join the Chamber of Commerce for its value in helping to maintain a consciousness of many civic needs and always striving to improve things generally. It takes years of agitation sometimes to get things done, to iron out many kinks. It takes that to make success. An
