POLK COUNTY 4-H'ers AT PIEDMONT FAIR

Polk County 4-H Club and Future Farmer boys and girls again this year will be invited to send one of their number on a free, all expense paid trip to their choice of two great international livestock shows—The National Livestock Show in Chicago or the American Royal in Kansas City, courtesy of the Piedmont Interstate Fair which will open its sixth season, six counties gates October 8th on Piedmont Interstate Fairgrounds at Spartanburg.

The Fair—as rewards to winners in its annual Livestock Fitting and Showing Contest—will award one trip to the boy or girl winning in each of these counties: Spartanburg, Union, Laurens, Cherokee, Polk and Rutherford.

Polk County therefore is assured a winner if its 4-H and Future Farmer members will "get in there and pitch." Fair President Paul Black said.

"We hope they will; we'd be delighted to have a winner from Polk County."

The winners from each county will go to the exhibitions in a group this fall. Dates and other details will be announced.

Polk County young musicians are also urged to compete in the Piedmont Parade of Marching Bands, another 1951 Interstate Fair feature with awards.

Interested youngsters are urged to contact their local county agents and high school band leaders immediately for information on both events.

The Eastern Star will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the Masonic Hall.
