

(Est. 1-31-25)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 260 TRYON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 19, 1951

Mrs. Brendall, Secretary At Chamber of Commerce

Mrs. Marvin C. Brandall, the former Miss Sibyl Capps, has been appointed office secretary of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce, President Matt O'Shields announced Monday.

Mrs. Brendall has lived in Tryon for more than 25 years and has served as secretary for various business and manufacturing concerns, and is familiar with the aims and activities of the community. In addition to her Chamber of Commerce work she will be available as a public stenographer.

Mrs. Brendall succeeds Mrs. Hanford Thompson who accepted a position in the office of St. Luke's Hospital last May.

GOLF RESULTS

The first round golf results of the Championship flight at the Tryon Country Club are as follows: Ed Sayre defeated Tom Mize 4-3; Bill Lord over James Arledge 3-1; Virgil Cox over Billy Van Arsdale 2-1; Bert Acker over Chas. Stratford, default; Fred Edwards over Bob Adams 6-5; Dr. Horace Lyons over E. C. Prather 1 up; Clarence Edwards over Paul Gibson 3-2, and Marion Palmer over Al Bowen 4-3.

The losers of the first round of the Championship flight will make up the second flight. In the third flight Major A. R. Herron beat Thomas Hair 2-1, and Jim Gibson defeated P. D. Karsten Jr., 1 up. All others in the third flight received first round byes.

Weather Tuesday: High 73, low 58, Rel. Hum. 64 . . . Have you enrolled for the Crusade for Freedom. There is no price tag on it. Just send to The Bulletin or to John G. Landrum Jr., the amount you feel you should give. No one need make a sacrifice. 500 people giving a dollar each would raise the quota asked for the county. Let the world know how you stand on Russian Communism. President Truman said on Monday in an address at the Library of Congress that modern weapons, communications and propaganda methods make the power of Russia more effective, more violent and more far-reaching than any of the tyrants of the past. We can offset Pussian propaganda by sending the truth and words of hope to people behind the iron curtain . . . The Tryon Duplicate Bridge Tournament has been moved from the Congregational Church House to Oak Hall . . . "HAY FEVER", Noel Coward's play chosen for the Little Theatre's next performance will have tryouts Monday night at 7:30 at the Recreation Center. A copy of the play is at Missildine's for anyone to look over and see if he or she would like a part in it . . . Tryon's High School football team will play Biltmore Thursday night at Hendersonville.

Continued On Back Page