

(Est. 1-31-26)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 261 TRYON, N. C.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 20TH, 1951

SALUD NEWS LETTER

Julia Ann Johnson.

James Holand, suffered a heart attack Tuesday and was taken to the Patton Memorial Hospital in Hendersonville.

Mrs. J. C. Thompson is ill with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Denton of Columbus were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Arledge Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Haigler left this week for their home in Trenton, Fla., after spending the summer at their cottage on Stackhouse Hill.

Mrs. Mary Ballew, mother of Mrs. Ed Emory, fell down the steps at her home Sunday morning and was taken to Patton Memorial Hospital in Hendersonville for observation. No bones were broken. She is confined to bed for some time, however.

Mrs. Howard Gilbert of Spartanburg has returned home after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCall are making lots of improvements to their home they recently bought from the Gilberts.

The little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Laughter, is in the Patton Memorial Hospital in Hendersonville after an operation for a ruptured appendix.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, have announced the birth of a baby son, born at Patton Memorial this week. The baby has been named George Lee Jr.

Dan Robertson, who is in the Army, is home for a few days and is planning to move his family to Arizona.

Miss Monterey Thompson has moved into the Taylor apartment

Weather Wednesday: High 92, low 54, Rel. Hum. 52 . . . This is Fair time and people in this section are taking in the fairs of the surrounding communities. The Piedmont Fair at Spartanburg next month is the largest in the area. A number of Tryonites will attend the Carolina-State Football game at Raleigh on Saturday . . . Columbus Fire Department is sponsoring an entertainment at Columbus School featuring Pan Handle Pete and the Blue Ridge Night Hawks . . . Saturday is last day for new voters to register for ACB election. Any new voter (white or colored) desiring transportation to the registration booth, may call Mrs. Craig Thomas, Phone 63 . . . The Bridge Tournament at Oak Hall at 7:45 and the P.-T. A. meeting at the school; the Tryon-Biltmore football game at Hendersonville as well as movies and television will claim attention of various groups tonight. . . . Ballenger's Department store is closing every Saturday night at 7 o'clock. Now that no one has to work over 8 hours per day and many not at all on Saturday there is not the need for stores to keep longer hours. . . . In a letter to Charles J. Lynch Vice-President E. R. Oliver of the Southern Railway System, Wash-

-----Continued On Back Page-----

-----Continued on Back Page-----