

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

(Est. 1-31-28)

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 266 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, SEPT. 27, 1951

Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Patton on their 37th wedding anniversary tomorrow. It is also Mrs. Patton's birthday. She came to Tryon today to autograph the few remaining histories left for sale at the Chamber of Commerce office . . . Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Marie Arrowood and Mr. Walter Fortune which will take place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Tryon Second Baptist Church with the Rev. Robert A. Brooks officiating . . . Parcel post rate increases will become effective Monday. The increase will be about a fourth more than present prices . . . This is National Dog Week and many grocery stores are advertising dog foods. Tobi, the black cocker owned by Dr. and Mrs. George F. Taylor is recuperating from an illness at the Taylor hospital in Hendersonville . . . Tonight is the night of the duplicate bridge tournament at Oak Hall hotel and Friday night at the same place the annual meeting of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce will be held.

SALUDA NEWS LETTER

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis of Mount Holly were guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Hansell last week-end. Rev. Mr. Hansell is in

Continued on Back Page

MRS. E. B. ALLEN KILLED AT RAILROAD CROSSING

Mrs. E. B. Allen, 80, of Kell Apartments, Tryon, was killed this morning by the westbound passenger train at the Trade Street crossing near the depot.

The McFarland Funeral Home has the body awaiting information from relatives.

Mrs. Allen had been down town doing her morning shopping and was enroute home when hit by the train. The railroad signal bell was ringing constantly, but a local freight train was in front of the depot with all indication that the freight was causing the bell to ring and she probably had no idea another train was coming from her left. She was killed instantly.

Mrs. Allen, the widow of a prominent Congregational minister, had made her home in Tryon for the past two winter seasons at the Kell Apartments. From June to September she lived in her summer home at Beulah, Michigan, where members of her family visited her.

The deceased is survived by four daughters and two sons, as follows: Mrs. Harold Gray, Interlocken, Mich.; Mrs. Max Haswell, Saline Valley Farms, Saline, Mich.; Mrs. Lawrence Schaffner, 32 Curtis Place, Fredonia, N. Y.; Mrs. Donald S. Bourne, 614 State St., Osage, Iowa; Donald C. Allen, 327 Burns St. S. E., Washington, D. C., and Robert Allen of Ohio.

Mrs. Allen's father, the Rev. O. S. Bryant, was pastor of the Congregational Church in Tryon many years ago. Since her return to the community she was a faithful attendant at the church and Sunday school and was interested

Continued On Back Page