FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

In connection with National Fire Prevention Week, Jim Bailey, former assistant fire chief of Asheville, spoke at the Tryon school at 10 a. m., today after conducting a fire drill.

The Tryon Volunteer Fire Department will inspect businesses, schools, hotels, etc., during this week. Fire Chief Eb Fisher requests that everyone clean up any fire hazards they might have.

LIONS MEET TONIGHT

The Lions club will meet at Oak Hall tonight at 7:30. Jim Bailey, assistant chief of the fire department of Asheville, will be the speaker. Mr. Bailey is also head of the American LaFrance Fire Fighting Equipment of North Carolina and the Southern division.

Since this is Fire Prevention Week, the Lions have invited all members of the Rotary, Kiwanis Clubs and also the local Volunteer Fire Department members to come to the meeting. Those who can come, call 334-W, C. C. Tharpe and make reservations.

INJURED BY CAR

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Jones, both 73, of Saluda RFD 1, were injured when struck by a car near the Green River Bridge about 7 p. m. Sunday.

Both received fractures of the legs and other injuries, State Highway Patrolman J. B. Kuykendall said.

He listed the driver of the car as Miss Corinne Prince, 38, of Hendersonville, and quoted her as saying the couple stepped out in front of her car. No charges had been preferred Monday.—The Asheville Times.
