Vol. 24—No. 275 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 10TH, 1951

Weather Tuesday: High 68, low 46, Rel. Hum. 55 . . . The Men of the Tryon Presbyterian Church will meet Friday night at 7 and the chief speaker will be Rev. Orville H. White, pastor of the Congregational Church . . . The Episcopal Men's Club held their regular supper meeting Tuesday night with about 40 men present. No report available . . . If the Yanks win the ball game today a million Americans can go back to work between 1 and 3 p. m., each day. If the Giants win the series will be tied up 3-3 and the playoff will take place Thursday . . . James G. K. McClure, chairman of the Western North Carolina section of the Crusade for Freedom, states that the campaign will close in this section on October 20th. Polk County has already gone over the top but anyone wanting to share in this fight on Communism and help save our comrades behind the Iron Curtain still have an opportunity to contribute by sending donations to John G. Landrum or The Bulletin office . . .

COLUMBUS P.-T.A. MEETS

The Stearns school P.-T. A. will meet Thursday night at 7:30 at the school. County Superintendent James W. Gantt will be the chief speaker.

MRS. A. T. KEARNEY

Mrs. Andrew Thomas Kearney, the former Miss Harriet Mohr, passed away suddenly Tuesday afternoon at her home 198 Forest St., Winnetka, Ill., according to information received by Ralph C. Erskine.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Kearney is survived by one daughter, Miss Jean Mohr Kearney, who is engaged to be married this month.

The Kearneys bought the Guy Davenport place near Columbus 7 years ago and built a home on it. They spent part of each year here and planned to make their permanent home at Holly Hill.

No information as to funeral arrangements was available at press time.
