

SALUDA NEWS LETTER

By Miss Julia Ann Johnson.

Clayton Johnson who has been very sick at the Mary Black Hospital in Spartanburg is improving.

The Rev. Earl Hansell, pastor of the Methodist Church has announced that all the churches that do not have Sunday evening service at their church are especially invited to come and worship with them at 7:30 p. m. The church board of education met at the church Tuesday night and the following new church Sunday school officers were elected: general superintendent, Homer Taylor; superintendent children's work, Mrs. Homer Taylor; superintendent of youth dept. Henry Clippard; superintendent of adult department, Rev. D. L. Earnhardt; secretary and treasurer, Ralph Adams. Kindergarten class, Mrs. Homer Taylor, primary class, Mrs. Bryson Edwards, junior class, Mrs. J. H. Clippard, intermediate class, J. H. Clippard, young adult class, Mrs. John P. Taylor, adult Bible class, Rev. D. L. Earnhardt, intermediate fellowship class, Miss Edith Hawkins. All members are urged to attend the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning at which time a congregational business meeting will be held.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Barrington King, will be sorry to hear that Mr. King is very sick at a hospital in Greenville, S. C.

There will be a singing at the Warrior Mountain church near Saluda Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. Roy L. Johnson will be in charge of the singing and the public is invited. This church is easily reached by a good road.

Judy Clippard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clippard, was tripped by a dog Sunday afternoon about 6 while running in the yard and fell and broke her left arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Taylor and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wicker in Saluda, S. C., and attended the homecoming at the Mt. Pleasant Luthern Church there.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Rhodes, and Mr. and Mrs. Olis Russell have traded their homes and expect to move in next week. The Rhodes place is on Greenville St., and the Russell place is on Patterson St.

Friends of Mrs. W. E. Sawyer are sorry to hear her sister, Mrs. Mamie Child, is very ill in a hospital in Newberry, S. C.

The entire community is happy to have Rev. and Mrs. Earl Hansell sent back to the Methodist Church.

If the weather permits there will be a baptizing Sunday afternoon by Rev. G. A. Davis of Tryon. Several people from Saluda and Tryon will be baptized. The place for the baptizing has not been decided on but anyone wishing to attend can see Mrs. J. B. Pace this week-end for the information or come to her home at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Earl Hansell and her two sisters of Charlotte are spending this week at Myrtle Beach, S. C.
