

B. Frank Carruth, Landrum, S. C., Tel. 105

General Electric

Refrigerators . . . Ranges . . . Home Freezers . . . Washing Machines . . . Water Heaters, Etc.

(Liberal Trade-In Allowances)

Friday's Rotary Luncheon

Demus Chapman gave a talk of new fibres. He showed samples of some of the newest developments in the synthetic threads and how they took various dyes.

John Stephenson was inducted into the club by Ben White as the latest member. Craig Furr was elected by the directors to fill out the unexpired term of Wilbur Roadhouse, who received an indefinite leave of absence during his convalescence.

It was voted that a joint session with the Hendersonville club be held to hear a talk by a Mexican exchange student, on Nov. 12, at Hendersonville.

Visiting Rotarians were B. Rush Jolly, L. E. Boyd and Bill McShane, Hendersonville; Herbert D. Oliver, Atlanta, Ga. Guests were Mayor Stevens, C. M. Eargle, Ernest Kerhulas, Les Barnette, Frank Sims and Fred Anderson.
—J.O.S.

Kay Wilson Buys Farm

Kay Wilson of Columbus has bought the Otis Waldrop farm in Sandy Plains section of Polk County and will stock it with beef cattle. The property joins the J. A. Wilson place on Route No. 9 between Mill Spring and Green Creek. Sale was made through Columbus Realty Co.

John J. Burling of the real estate firm, The Richland Co., and a former president of the Real Estate Board of Summit, N. J., is visiting his cousins, the Misses James and Mrs. Chase at The Cottage Gate in Gillette Woods.

The COFFEE SHOP

at

BUCKINGHAM INN

is prepared to serve

BREAKFAST

LUNCHEON

DINNER

SNACKS

SANDWICHES

SALADS

A T A L L H O U R

Open 7 a. m. to 9:30 p. m.

Every day including Sunday.

Everything to Order

GOOD FOOD . . . In Regular Lunches and Short Orders—

A. J. COWAN'S ROCK GRILL

Clean . . . Cool . . . Quiet . . . Comfortable