Vol. 24—No. 279 TRYON, N. C.. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1951

Weather Monday: High 78, low 46, Rel. Hum. 46 . . . President Truman visited North Carolina on Monday to speak at the ground breaking ceremonies for the new Wake Forest College building. He said America was ready to talk with Russia regarding control of atomic energy for a genuine peace. . . . Walter Knoop reports the rainfall on south Tryon Mountain from January to September as follows: 1948—52.32 inches; 1949—58.75 inches; 1950—45.86; 1951—30.93. It is very dry and many wells and springs have become useless . . . Tryon friends were congratulating Mrs. Elizabeth Rhodes on her birthday Monday, October 15. Her age was not given but she has been in business in Tryon for the past 43 years, outlasting banks and large mercantile and industrial concerns. Today her ladies ready-to-wear shop is the nicest and most up-to-date in its 43 years history and in addition she operates a bargain center and modern beauty parlor. . . . Today is a holiday for Tryon school students while the teachers are attending a district meeting in Asheville . . . Another wreck has been reported at the bad Lynn bridge. This is one of the most dangerous places in the whole county, especially since the
