Eloise Panther Williams

Lyman.—Mrs. Eloise Panther Williams of Lyman died at her home Thursday at 5:40 p. m. after a long illness.

She was born and reared in Tryon, N. C., a daughter of the late Bailus and Nannie McDade Panther. She was the sister of Sheriff Loyd Panther of Poik County, N. C. She had lived at Lyman 27 years, however, and was a charter member of the First Baptist Church of Lyman.

Surviving are her husband, Charlie M. Williams, a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Mayfield of Lyman; a son, Fred D. Williams of Duncan; two brothers, Loyd Panther and Gaiter Panther of Columbus, N. C.; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Arnold Gaines and daughter, Martha, have gone to Norwalk, Ohio, to join Mr. Gaines, who has a position as a linesman there.

Sgt. William Copenhaver of Chicago has returned to Kessler Field, Miss., after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gardner.

Randolph Coates, noted Indiana artist, was a recent guest at the Cotton Patch in the Hunting Country.

Mrs. F. M. Huebner and some friends have returned to Jackson, Mich., after a short visit at the Huebner Hayloft in the Hunting Country.

HALLOWE'EN CARNIVAL

Plans are being completed for the annual Hallowe'en party of the Tryon public school. This year the Carnival will be held on Main Street in Tryon, the evening of October 31st.

Expectations are that, with the square dancing in the street, costume parades, stunts, drinks, and much food, this year's event will surpass all previous ones.—School Reporter.
