Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 284 TRYON, N. C.. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1951

Weather Monday: High 71, low 59, rain .28, Rel. Hum. 80 . . . A Mixed Foursome is scheduled for the Tryon Country Club Sunday afternoon beginning at 2:15, sponsored by the Club Tournament Committee. This is the last one of the season. All members are expected to play whether they call themselves good or not. Prizes and lots of fun are promised by the committee. Players must report at 2:14 . . . "What ever that is" is good. Dr. Gordon Graham, whose mother was born in England, has a friend from Scotland. They now live at Mocksville, N. C. The other day they made some Scotch Short Bread and sent Dr. Graham some. . . . delicious. There is a keen interest in things Scottish now. Just take a look at all Tryon gift shops. One fellow brought me a bottle of Scotch whiskey. When the Scottish clans gather on Wednesday afternoon it should make an interesting meeting . . . The annual Hallowe'en Carnival of Mill Spring school will be at the school on Friday, October 26th, at 7:30 p. m.

FOUND: ONE FOOTBALL. Owner may have it by applying at The Bulletin Office, identifying same and paying for this advertisement.

Jack Martin has returned from a visit with Tryon friends who are students at State College.

EPISCOPAL S. S. OFFICERS

Church School officers of The Church of the Holy Cross have been elected as follows:

Mrs. M. L. Thompson, Supt.; Thomas H. Nash, treasurer; Mrs. C. L. McGavern, Guild of the Christ Child director. Teachers: Mrs. Wm. T. Capers Jr., Mrs. W. S. Fellows, Mrs. C. W. Kittrell, Mrs. Cary L. Page, Guy Sowards; assistant teachers, Mrs. Wm. M. Spivey, Mrs. James Lineberger, Mrs. George Holmes, Mrs. Roger Shaffer; pianists, Miss Gertrude Taylor and Miss Ann Nash.

Yearbook Contract Signed

Contract for the printing of the Tryon High School 1952 Yearbook has been signed with the Keys Printing Co., of Greenville, S. C., according to the school reporter. The necessary quota of support has not been received to date, but the officials state that they have faith enough in the project to expect delivery of the book before the 1952 commencement.

DINNER TICKETS READY

Mrs. Sibyl Brendall stated Monday that tickets for the annual Tryon Chamber of Commerce dinner-meeting are now available at Missildine's, Owen's and the Chamber of Commerce office. The meeting will be held Monday night, Oct-29th, at Oak Hall with talks by the Rev. Charles L. McGavern, Matt O'Shields and a musical program by Happy Harvey.

Cost of boll weevil poison applications in North Carolina this year ranged from $8 to $20 per acre for the season.
