Vol. 24—No. 287 TRYON, N. C.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1951

Weather Thursday: High 76, low 45, Rel. Hum. 46 . . . Winston Churchill's Conservative Party was reported assured of victory in British Election Thursday . . . A county-wide rat control campaign will be put on by the County Agents Saturday, November 3. Everybody putting out rat poison at the same time will do more to eliminate rats than when one person does it alone. Cost of poison is 30c per pound. Anyone interested should notify County Agent Paul Culberson or The Bulletin office right away as the poison has to be ordered . . . Tryon-Christ football game this afternoon at 3:30 at Harmon Field . . . The Chamber of Commerce gets many unusual questions. S. S. Otis of Winnetka, Ill., called to see Ernst Benkert Thursday and they had a bet about the altitude of the North Star at Tryon and asked President Howard Frankenfield for the correct information. He reported that he would have to have a nautical almanac. Probably some of our retired naval officers would donate one to the Tryon Chamber of Commerce . . . Mr. Benkert was the architect or designer of the William Barrow house. Mr. and Mrs. Otis are staying at Flacks at Chimney Rock. . . . Joe Louis fight tonight at 10 on Oak Hall lobby television.
