Nelson Jackson Succeeds Dr. Dye on Hospital Board

Chairman C. D. Stevens reports that at the September meeting of the Board of Trustees of St. Luke's Hospital, the resignation of Dr. Alex V. Dye as a member of the Board was accepted with regret. He said Dr. Dye had served as a Trustee for three years, rendering valuable service to the Hospital, and he asked to be relieved of further duty.

At a meeting of the Board held on Friday, October 26, Nelson Jackson Jr., was elected to fill the vacancy caused by Dr. Dye's resignation. Mr. Jackson was a member of the Board in the formation years of St. Luke's Hospital and had much to do with its establishment and success. Mr. Stevens said, "He is warmly welcomed to another term of service."
