

At the Landrum Hallowe'en Carnival Miss Iris Dill was crowned queen and George Campbell, king of the high school. Taleene Kinerman and Jackie Turner were named queen and king for the grammar grades. The turkey was won by Mrs. Frank Brown; guessing masked persons by Mrs. Calvin Edwards. Committee included Misses Marjorie Littlefield, Myrtle Foster, Mary F. Gosnell, Pamela Koon.

"It is always interesting to hear of Nancy Bomar Stringer and the way in which her talents are appreciated—this time it is to hear of a exhibit of her portraits which was held at St. Mary's School, Mt. Saint Gabriel, Peekshill, New York, Saturday afternoon—a number of friends here received invitations to this one-painter exhibit—Nancy has shown herself an able portrait painter and it is hoped she will have an exhibit here before too long.—Mary H. Phifer in The Spartanburg Herald-Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll G. Bennett have returned from a week's stay in Virginia and the East.

There will be a string band to play for the square dance at the Hallowe'en Carnival on Trade Street on Wednesday evening. The school children, parents, and friends are invited to the event.
