Vol. 24—No. 301 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOV. 15TH, 1951

Weather Wednesday: High 62, low 49, rain .33, Rel. Hum. 25.
... Congratulations to the Tryon Rotary Club on its efforts to get something done about the dangerous railroad crossing in Tryon. The Club wrote letters to the railroad officials, the governor of North Carolina, the chairman of the Public Utilities Commission, the State Highway Commission, Senator Clyde Hoey and others. The railroad promised to have the matter investigated. In the meantime all the other officials concerned went to work on it, too, and this morning Commissioner Edward H. McMahan of Raleigh; Inspector D. D. Davis of Webster and others met with Rotary, Town of Tryon and Chamber of Commerce officials for a conference. . . . Probably the first chincillas ever born in Tryon arrived a few days ago at the home of the Rev. Henry Hearn, pastor of the Tryon First Baptist Church. Maj. Hearn, who was a chaplain in the recent World War, has a profitable hobby of raising chincillas. He has over 40 of them now. It is reported that he plans to use the money from their sale to finance a religious excursion to the Holy Land or other religious work. . . . Congratulations to the Tryon Rotary Club again on the publication of its

10 Minute Parking Here

Mayor C. D. Stevens has announced that due to the traffic congestion of Pacolet Street in front of the Post Office parking will be limited to 10 minutes the time considered long enough for a person to get his mail and leave. This rule applies to both sides of Pacolet Street from Richardson & Karsten's office to Dr. Preston's office at Corner of Pacolet and Chestnut.

Joe Gentry, Landrum Clerk

Joe Gentry has been named Town Clerk by the Landrum Town Council to succeed B. F. Thomson, effective November 16th. The town clerk's job is the equivalent to town manager in many communities. Mr. Gentry will have his office upstairs in the Commercial Bank building.

It's Still The Auberge

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bell, new owners of the Auberge apartment house have announced that at request of many Tryonites and guests, the name of the building will not be changed as at first contemplated.
