Washingtonian Is Speaker For Kiwanis Tuesday

Ernest B. Kellogg, secretary of the Milk Industry Foundation, Washington, D. C., will be the guest speaker of the Tryon Kiwanis Club Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel. He will speak on "Green Pastures."

Mr. Kellogg bought a 267 acre tract of land sometime ago in Greenville and Spartanburg counties near Tryon from Frank Owen which he is developing into a cattle farm.

He and Mrs. Kellogg plan to retire here. They have two children: a son, Bruce Kellogg, a student at M. I. T. and a daughter, Mrs. Peter Gutkind, whose husband is now writing his thesis for his masters degree at the University of Chicago.

Mr. Kellogg is a native of Kansas and Mrs. Kellogg, the former Miss Helen Hollowell, is a native of South Bend, Ind.

Mrs. C. A. Cleveland

Mrs. Ellen M. Cleveland, 53, wife of Carlton A. Cleveland, Binghamton, N. Y., business man, died recently after a long illness. She was a native of Tryon, and was educated at Miss Gwynn's School and Converse College.

Funeral services were held at Trinity Memorial Episcopal Church in Binghamton.

Mrs. Cleveland had been active in women's affairs and civic organizations for several years. She was a former member of the Women's Board of Directors of City Hospital, Board of Directors of the Day Nursery, Monday Afternoon Club, Civic Club and Junior
