

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 304 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1951

Weather Monday: High 40, low 25, Rel. Hum. 36 . . . The headlines are still confusing with talk, insuations, - guessing, etc. One group talking peace; another scheming war . . . Cleveland, O., digging out of a 10 inch snow. Freezing weather hit Northern Florida and New Orleans. Warmer weather promised for Tryon Tuesday and Wednesday . . . Have your holiday visitors take a tour of the Blue Ridge Weavers, Toy House, Hearthiside, Seven Hearths, Valhalla Handweavers for unusual things to see . . . Asheville Citizen reports that Thomas Ruppe Capps of Lynn killed a 130-pound bear Monday in the Avery's Creek area of Pisgah National Forest. Ellis M. Coggins of Saluda killed a deer on the same hunt. There were 14 deer and only one bear killed by the group of hunters Monday. The hunt will last three days . . . Here at Tryon a fox ran across the yard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Hair on Lynn road Monday night. Rabbits, quail, chipmunks and hundreds of birds are seen or heard right on Trade Street. This is a wild country. . . . Tryon High School Juniors are giving a square dance Wednesday night. Thanksgiving services will be held Thursday morning. Union Services at the Epis-

-----Continued on Back Page-----

TALLEN FOR MUSIC

The Tryon School Music Dept. needs a lot of equipment and the students are willing to work extra to get it to help the school. A tallent prograf will be given two nights next week, on Friday, Nov. 30, and Saturday, Dec. 1, at 8 o'clock each night. Tallented young people from all over Polk County will contribute to the program to give the audience more than its money's worth, according to the director of the program. The admission of 30c and 60c will be used to go toward the purchase of equipment. The Tryon P.-T. A. is sponsoring the project.

Congressman Jones Here

Congressman Woodrow Jones will address a meeting of Liberty Life Insurance Agents tonight at Sunyndale following a dinner meeting at 6:30. About 25 agents will be present as well as President Francis Hipp and Vice President Herman M. Hipp, both of Greenville.

Arledge Picked for Bowl

Thomas Arledge, fullback for the Tryon High School Tigers has been selected to play on the Eastern squad against the Westerners in the fifth annual Optimist Bowl game played in Asheville Nov. 30. The squads are composed of the outstanding Seniors of the Western North Carolina High Schools.

PHIPPS MAKES GOOD

Tryon television fans report their enjoyment of Thomas W. Phipps' original plays which are presented every Friday night for one hour from New York City and sent out in this section over WBTV, Charlotte.