Vol. 23—No. 306 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOV. 22, 1951

A Union Thanksgiving Service of all denominations desiring to participate will be held today at 10 a. m., at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross with the Rev. Orville White, pastor of the Congregational Church, preaching the sermon. His subject will be on the Pilgrims of Babylon. The Thanksgiving music will be directed by Dr. R. A. Laslett Smith, Holy Cross church organist and choir director. Services last year were held in the Presbyterian Church with the Methodist minister preaching. The services rotate from year to year among the churches taking part . . . Besides a good Thanksgiving dinner and the church services, Tryonites have on the program today movies, television (radio, hiking, motoring, drag fox hunt by Tryon Hounds to which public is invited Ernst Mahler and Carter P. Brown are joint masters and George Webster is the huntsman. The Hounds will meet at Little Orchard near Chinquapin entrance. Thursday night there will be no bridge tournament account of other activities. The tourney will be resumed next week. All one has to do is get a partner and pay 50c per person and join the bridge lovers. Some of the best players in the world participate along with some of the worst, and
