HOUNDS MEET

Tryon Hounds will meet at 3 p. m., Thanksgiving afternoon for their first formal drag of the season. Hounds will meet at Little Orchard on the Ridge Road. Spectators may view the hunt and a car guide will direct them to vantage points.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

Miss Durham's fourth graders were in charge of the Tryon school assembly program Wednesday. They presented a Thanksgiving program of recitations, songs, a humorous monologue, and a play. Those students taking part were Bobby Dedman, Doyce Flynn, Fred Gibbs, Lee Hurley, Billy Lindsey, David Martin, Phillip Pack, Jack Parker, Billy Ross, John Shields, and Creston Walker; also, Elaine Bradley, Margaret Crissone, Jacqueline Davidson, Carolyn Green, Annie Lee Kuykendall, Geraldine Lankford, Joan Leonard, Joan Miller, Jessie Newman, Mable Owens, Margaret Pressley and Anna Swann. James Steadman was in charge of stage props.

Miss Durham of Tryon school entertained her fourth graders at her home in Landrum last Saturday from 10:30 to 4 o'clock. After several games and a weiner roast, the groups attended a movie. Every pupil of the grade was able to be present.
