DANSONS ENTERTAINED

A farewell party was given Friday evening at the Masonic Hall by the Landrum Chapter No. 68 O.E.S., honoring Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Danson, who are moving to York on Monday.

The hall was decorated with chrysanthemums and dried arrangements. 25 guests enjoyed games conducted by Mrs. C. J. Ayres and Mrs. Yates Gilmore with prizes being won by Mr. and Mrs. Amy Johnson, who in turn presented them to the Dansons.

Mrs. Roy Heavner, in behalf of the Chapter, presented Mr. and Mrs. Danson with a green pottery planter encircled by a brass holder, as a parting gift.

Decorated party squares, nuts and Russian tea was served from an appointed table covered with an embroidered, white linen cloth. Pink candles and chrysanthemums were used to carry out the pink and white motif. Tea was poured by Mrs. George DeCarme, worthy matron, assisting in serving were Mrs. Clark Bridges and Mrs. Yates Gilmore.
