

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 315 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 5, 1951

Weather Tuesday: High 70, low 50, rain 3.56, Rel. Hum. 82 Radio reports this morning state that it is freezing weather in Korea. Those members of the Mill Spring Baptist Church who sent clothing to Sgt. J. D. Coggin in Korea for distribution to the needy will take comfort in seeing pictures of the people wearing the clothes they sent. So often one wonders if what they send over will reach the persons the gifts are intended for. Elsewhere in this issue is a letter from Sgt. Coggin telling about the gifts and photos of the people wearing the clothing W. W. Creasman states that the Tryon Fireman's Santa Claus program plans are underway. Last year the Volunteer Firemen had a large lighted tree opposite the Tryon Bank & Trust Co. The beautiful blue lights were different, and on a night appointed a Santa Claus program was given when all the children white and colored, were given candy and fruit. The Firemen expect to repeat the performance this year and all those who donate to the cause will have a part in making a lot of children happy The green trees around the power poles on Trade Street are being put up and look attractive even without

Continued on Back Page

Organ Meditation Today

Craig B. Thomas, organist, will give a program of organ meditation this afternoon from 4:30 to 5 o'clock at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross. The public is invited.

Mr. Thomas was an organist at Camp Croft during World War II and has been an accompanist at many public gatherings in this area. The organ meditation will be presented the first Wednesday in every month.

NEWS BRIEFS

It is reported that the Tryon ABC officials will have their office upstairs over Arledge Hardware Store. Robert H. Millikin will be the manager of the ABC store, according to Chairman R. E. Branley. He and Clerks Euit Smith and Richard Davidson are now in training in Charlotte. No official announcement has been made but it has been estimated that the store will open about Monday, December 10th.

"Scouting Makes Real Men Out of Boys," Dobson Says

"Scouting is a process which makes real men out of real boys through a real program that works," W. A. Dobson, of Atlanta, Region 6 Scout executive, declared here Tuesday night.

He spoke before more than 100 scouters and guests at the annual dinner meeting of Spartanburg District of Palmetto Boy Scout Council at the Episcopal Church of the Advent.

Region 6 covers the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida, and contains

Continued on Back Page