

Lions District Governor

Roy A. Taylor

District Governor Roy A. Taylor of the Lions International 31-A of North Carolina, prominent lawyer of Black Mountain and attorney of Buncombe County, will address the Tryon Lions Club tonight at Oak Hall when he makes his official visit to the club.

Gov. Taylor has represented Buncombe County in the State Legislator for three sessions and served in the Navy during the last war. He is a former president of the Black Mountain Lions Club and former Zone Chairman. He will speak on the ideals and principles of Lionism.

President Clyde C. Tharpe of the Tryon Club states that he expects a large attendance to hear Governor Taylor.

FOR RENT: 6 room house. Electric lights and water; also a garden. Phone 164-W or call in person at Mahler's Farm.—Ad. 10, 11, 12p

"Whatever mankind does printing records, aids and abets."

ELBERT H. ARLEDGE
PRINTER

Wood's Plumbing & Heating Sales and Service

SERVICE CALLS
OIL BURNERS
PUMPS and STOKERS

Phone 106-X

Between Landrum and Tryon on Highway No. 176 South. Near Tryon Builders Supply in building formerly known as Ben Gibbs' Service Station.

TRYON THEATRE

Tues., Wed., Dec. 11, 12—Vera Ellen and David Niven in
"HAPPY GO LOVELY"

A rainbow of rhythm and romance. Cartoon and Musical

Thurs., Fri., Dec. 13, 14—Story of the Water Front
"THE RAGING TIDE"

With Shelley Winters and Richard Conte. News, Cartoon.

Saturday, Dec. 15—Double Feature—Your Favorite Cowboy
Roy Rogers in

"SPOILER OF THE PLAINS"

—also—

"FLIGHT TO MARS"

Also Cartoon and Serial No. 4.