Thrifty Garden Club Meets

The Thrifty Garden Club of Ladrum met Tuesday afternoon at 3 in the home of Mrs. Paul Reneau with Mrs. C. M. Littlefield Jr., co-hostess.

During the business hour a nominating committee composed of Miss Myrtle Foster, Mrs. J. M. Hightower and Mrs. C. J. Stover were appointed by the president. Mrs. Staggs announced the Christmas home Decoration Contest and the cash awards of $6, $5, $4, $3, and $2 under two classifications as viewed from the street. The classes will be "Prettiest" and "Cleverest", with five prizes to be awarded under each class. The judges to be from out of town. Everyone living within the city limits will be eligible to participate. A family was adopted by the club and gifts were wrapped to fill the Christmas Baskets that will be delivered on the eve of Christmas.

Miss Myrtle Foster displayed and discussed the numerous decorations that could be made for the home with a minimum of expense.

Several members brought arrangements and told of their pleasure in choosing and combining the many different types of greens and berries to make attractive arrangements for the home. Special recognition was given Mrs. M. B. Bishop on her sweetgum arrangement with the multi-colored gum balls on the branches in a white container with pine cones at the base. These arrangements and gifts are on display at Heavner's store.

Ambrosia and fruit cake was served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Reneau's daughter, Emily.

Mrs. J. O. Bishop was welcomed as a guest. Mrs. Fred Crain and Mrs. C. J. Stover will be joint hostesses in January.

BRIDGE WINNERS

At the Bridge Tournament at Oak Hall Thursday night J. P. Earle and Mrs. Baxter Haynes won first place, North-South; Miss Lou Finley and Frank McIntosh were second; Maj. and Mrs. A. R. Heron, third.

For East-West, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerby were first; Mrs. J. Kenneth Sanders and Mrs. J. G. Newhall, second; and for third, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ernst and Mrs. Betty Steiner and R. R. Williams were tied.

The commonplace practice of soliciting rides from the shoulder of the road is particularly dangerous at this time of the year, Col. J. R. Smith, Highway Patrol commander said. "With longer hours of darkness and generally bad weather it is difficult for drivers to spot people on foot. It's best not to walk along the highway at night unless it's absolutely necessary."

Smith also warned against drinking and wandering up and down the highway. He cautioned pedestrians walking on the highway to face oncoming traffic and not stand on the pavement to thumb rides.
