Weather: No official report but freezing rain began falling before daybreak today and there is some slush on the roads and streets . . . Will Santa Claus come to the Firemen's tree on Trade Street tonight? The weather is pretty bad for the young people, but no weather is too bad for Santa Claus. If he doesn't show up it will be because he thinks the little children shouldn't be out in the rain . . . The Sunday school classes of Peniel Baptist Church will present a Christmas program Sunday night at 6:30 after which gifts will be distributed, says Rev. Furman Johnson. The public is invited . . .

Carols and Gifts at Rotary

Theo Kerhulas will have charge of the Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. The members of the club will exchange toy gifts which will later be turned over to underprivileged children. The members will sing Christmas carols and Dr. George Farland Taylor will give a short talk on the meaning of Christmas.

Orchestra At Sunnydale

Sunnydale, Tryon's refectory, now has an orchestra for dances on Saturdays, Dec. 22 and 29th, and for New Year's Eve.

Outdoor Nativity Scene At Columbus Presbyterian

A Nativity scene has been erected in the yard of the Columbus Presbyterian Church at the corner of the first street in Columbus with the Landrum-Columbus Road. Visitors and motorists can easily see it and all are invited to go in the yard and get a closer view. The project was designed and constructed by W. W. Wallace. The painting was done by Mrs. Whitson Edwards and her mother, Mrs. H. P. Westaby; Hill's Radio Shop furnished the lights and Eutrent Geer is in charge of the lights.

School Principal Resigns

D. J. Chadwick, principal of the Green's Creek School, has resigned on account of his health and will leave soon for the Veteran's Hospital at Columbia, S. C. Mrs. Chadwick has accepted a position as teacher in a school in southern Georgia. No successor has been named for Mr. Chadwick.

TOYLAND AT KIWANIS

The Tryon Kiwanis Club enjoyed toyland Tuesday at Oak Hall hotel at the annual Christmas meeting. Each member brought a toy and exchanged gifts with another member. These slightly used toys will be given to deserving children in the community. There will be no meeting next Tuesday.

Allies delay exchange of prisoners while officials examine Communist reports for any false moves. Asheville Citizen today published the list of Western North Carolina men held prisoner by the Reds.
