

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 339 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1952

Weather Monday: High 56, low 33, Rel. Hum. 37 . . . The Eisenhower boom for President is growing and boosters all over the nation join the cavalcade. The former West Point football player who played against Lefty Flynn of Yale will probably be called on to be captain of the greatest team in the world, to battle against communism. In the midst of war news and Presidential nominations attention is also centered on the struggle of Capt. Kurt Carlsen's hurricane-shattered ship trying to reach the English coast 100 miles away. The ship almost capsized Saturday . . . The Kiwanis Club meets today at 1; the Country Club Bridge tournament at 1:30; the Bird Club meets with Mrs. H. Lan Moore on Howard Gap Road at 3 p. m. Subject, "Birds in Our Garden and How to Attract Them". Lions Club meets tonight at Oak Hall . . . Holiday Magazine is interested in taking pictures of Tryon's spring events including the horse and hound show, steeplechase, teas, dances and other spring life in Tryon . . . Landrum Masonic Lodge meets tonight at 7:30 . . . Tryon will soon have connection with WSPA, Spartanburg, by remote control, according to plans of a local advertiser.

Miss Faircloth Appointed On 2 District Committees

Miss Esther P. Faircloth, R. N., Superintendent of Nurses at St. Luke's Hospital, was appointed on the publicity and finance committees of the North Carolina State Nurses Association for District No. 2 at a meeting held on Jan. 3rd at Lenoir.

The topic for the meeting was The Growth of Nursing Service in India with Miss Mary Lefener, and Dr. William Hopper, both of the Caldwell County Public Health Department as chief speakers. There were 41 nurses and six guests present.

HOSPITAL GRANT WINS APPROVAL

Washington, Jan. 3.—St. Luke's Hospital, Tryon, N. C., has received preliminary approval of a Federal grant of $66,000 towards construction of a 43-bed hospital costing $150,000, Senator Willis Smith of North Carolina announced.

Clement D. Stevens is chairman of the board of trustees of the hospital, which will receive the funds from the Public Health Service under the Hill-Burton Act.

Organ Meditation At Holy Cross Church Wednesday, 9th

The half hour of organ meditation at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross will be held on Wednesday from 4:30 to 5 p. m., with David Cromer at the organ. The period will be one half hour only and not to 5:30 as was erroneously stated in the advertisement.