

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol 24—No. 341 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JAN. 10TH, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 70, low 42, Rel. Hum. 71. The amount of rain will be reported in Friday's Bulletin. . . . The tourist business in North Carolina last year grossed over 300 million dollars, according to State Advertising Director Charles D. Parker. He said 1951 was the best travel year in history. The motor traffic between Florida and the North helps bring added dollars to hotels, restaurants, service stations, gift shops and real estate men as well as all lines of business. The State Bulletin also announces that Wilbur F. McFarland has been elected president of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce, and that M. M. Melvin, husband of the former Miss Amanda Fisher of Tryon, has resigned as Executive Vice President of the North Carolina Restaurant Association. He is the only man to hold the post in the organization which has grown rapidly since its organization five years ago. . . . Supper will be served at the annual meeting of the Tryon Country Club on Monday night at the club house. The price of the supper is $1.50 and reservations may be made through Mrs. Carroll G. Bennett, president of the Women's Golf Association. . . . At the organizational con-

Continued on Back Page

KILLED BY ELECTRICITY

Donald D. Allen, 22, linesman for the Duke Power Co., was killed Wednesday when his body came in contact with a high tension line at Taylorsville, N. C.

The deceased is survived by his widow, the former Miss Sibyl Green; one daughter, Deborah; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Allen of Mill Spring Route 1; one sister, Mrs. Mabel Taylor and one brother, William Ted Allen, all of Mill Spring.

Funeral services will be held at the Pea Ridge Baptist Church, probably Friday afternoon. The body will be at the home of his parents at Pea Ridge after 3 p. m. today.

SALUDA NEWS LETTER

By Julia Ann Johnson.

Mrs. Pauline Butler, who has been very sick with a severe cold is improving.

Mrs. Maude Bishop McCallister has returned from Columbia, S. C., where she attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, Jim C. Moore. Mr. Moore had visited in Saluda several times.

Miss Pearl Beard has returned from St. Luke's Hospital in Tryon where she has been for treatment.

The Fire Department answered a call Monday morning to a house which was reported to be on fire. On arrival it was found to be a frozen water pipe with a fine spray which from a distance looked like smoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stephenson and daughter, Lucile Ann, drove to Raleigh last week, carrying Joe Raymond, their son, and Tommy Parker back to State College. While there they visited with

Continued on Back Page