

Mrs. H. H. Marshall of Glen Ellyn, Ill., is visiting her brother, John E. Todd and family at Tryon Lodge.

Last week Wilmer Dempsey of Spartanburg, a polio victim, and nephew of Miss Leila Dempsey and Mrs. W. A. Wilson of Tryon, was flown to Houston, Texas for special treatment in a hospital where he will learn new breathing habits. The Spartanburg Infantile Paralysis Chapter and friends all over this area paid the expenses of the trip. The plane was supplied by his fellow officers of the U. S. Air Forces. He is a graduate of The Citadel and was stricken last September. Local contributions to the March of Dimes Fund may be made to Miss Jane Brown, treasurer; James R. Gibson at Tryon Bank & Trust Co., or to Chairman Craig B. Thomas.

Mrs. Glenn Elkin, nee Lavinia Green and baby daughter, Stephanie, have arrived from Berea, Ky., for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Green.
