over 25 years ago. She is one of a family of seven brothers and sisters, all living beyond sixty years. The first to break the family circle was her brother, Dr. Henry Powe of Laurens, S. C., who died a few weeks ago. Like Mrs. Kittrell, he was a native of Cheraw, S. C. He often visited Tryon, and was a "gentleman of the old school" in honor, kindness and good citizenship. Although retired for many years Mrs. Kittrell always takes some part in every worthwhile community project because of her interest in the welfare of humanity. She has been and still is an inspiration for many who carry on the burdens of fund raising and community building.
