J. D. POWER

John D. Power, 82, veteran of the Spanish-American War and World War No. 1, passed away this morning at his home in Tryon after a long illness. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at St. John's Catholic Church.

Mr. Power is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Power; a sister in Ireland, and a nephew, John Power of Charlotte.

Mr. Power, a native of Ireland, was a long time resident of Tryon.

Ted Lightner, student at Duke University, and son of Theodore Lightner, noted bridge player of New York City, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Ben White and family between semesters at the University.

Town officials are complaining about Tryon merchants sweeping trash into the street right after they have been washed. They say the merchants should sweep their trash into a dust pan and put it in the receptacles or else sweep the night before. All their efforts to make the streets look clean in the morning are defeated unless they get cooperation.

Tryon Baptist boys' and girls' basketball teams will play Forest City Baptist Saturday night at 7:30 at Tryon gym.

EPH GOODLOE: "I see why Taft is charged that his race the Senate cost one-hundred-million-dollars. If the Republicans in Ohio feel that strong about Taft, maybe the whole-bunch together would agree to pay-off our national debt—if we'd let them have a President for awhile. I'd want that agreement notarized, though!"—W. M. Bissell.
