Magazine Has Articles About WNC Business

The February issue of Redbook Magazine, in an article entitled "This Is the Life", tells of the family business established at Cashiers by Hank and Dottie Conkle.

According to the article, Conkle built a home at Cashiers after serving four years in the Navy, and started a gift shop business in the home, offering for sale mountain crafts and hand-made articles. In six years the business has become very successful.

The article, by Max De Novellis, is illustrated by seven color and two black and white photographs.—Asheville Citizen.

Mrs. Conkle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Smith of Tryon.

HOW ABOUT A SETTLEMENT OF BAD ACCOUNTS? If you need the cash and can't get paid for bad accounts, let a bonded collector get them and mail you the checks. Call 455 or 319-J, or write Box 463, Tryon and a representative will call. Absolutely no obligation.—Adv.
