Piedmont Scout Board to Meet

Shelby, Jan. 24.—The Executive Board of the Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America, serving the counties of Alexander, Burke, Caldwell, Catawba, Cleveland, Gaston, Iredell, Lincoln, McDowell, Polk and Rutherford, will hold a dinner meeting at the Educational Building of the Central Methodist Church here on Tuesday night, Jan. 29th at 7:15. This will be the first board meeting of the year and plans for the launching of the new three year program of the Boy Scouts of America, "Forward on Liberty's Team" will be perfected. Nelson Jackson of Tryon, president of the Council, will preside.

Operating Committees of the Council, including Organization and Extension, Leadership Training, Finance, Advancement, Camping and Activities, Health and Safety and Public Relations will hold planning meetings from six o'clock until the dinner meeting of the board at 7:15. Council officers and district commissioners will also meet at the same hour.

The new three year program of the Boy Scouts of America "Forward on Liberty's Team" will be launched during National Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6-12. Scout and Cub Units will observe Scouting's birthday with Father and Son Banquets and other special activities. Feb. 10 has been designated as National Boy Scout Sunday and each church sponsoring a Scout Unit will be invited to observe this day honoring the Scouts and Cubs of the institution.
