Vol. 25—No. 9 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1952

Weather Monday: high 67, low 53, Rel. Hum. 23. . . 29 persons were killed and 40 injured when an airliner out of Newark, N. J. bound for Miami, crashed against the roof of an apartment house which was set on fire by the crash. . . Rev. A. W. Baker of Rock Hill, S. C., Mrs. Baker, a neighbor and her child, found dead in Baker's home. It is thought the minister killed all. . . Col. J. O. Safford wrote an interesting article on the arrival of two Irish Champion hunters that have arrived at Pine Crest Inn Stables Ireland. They are "Sandra" a chestnut; and "Mellow King" a bay. They are owned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Kettles of Westbury, L. I. The Spartanburg Herald had a picture of the equestrians on Saturday. . . A recent Charlotte Observer had a review of George and Jane Dusenbury's revised book, "How to Retire to Florida" which has attracted national attention. . . The Columbus Capitols basketball teams took two from Montgomery & Crawford Monday night. The boys 69-57 and girls 47-12. Wednesday night the Capitol girls play Taggarts of Asheville, Buncombe county Y leaders, and the
