

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 10 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 13, 1952

Weather Tuesday: high 61, low 46, Rel. Hum. 36. The Reds promise, (If you can trust 'em) to offer new plan to save the truce and promote an armistice . . . The body of King George of England lies in state at Westminster Hall to await burial on Thursday at Windsor . . . One of the Kiwanis official songs, "God Save the King" has been changed to "God Save the Queen" . . . Sgt. Cornelius H. Charlton, 21, a Negro, of Bronx, N. Y., killed in action in Korea, has been awarded medal of honor for courageously leading his platoon against the enemy . . . Lincoln's birthday was observed at Kiwanis on Friday by singing the Battle Hymn of the Republic, and the reading by Holland Brady Jr. of a letter from Lincoln to Mrs. Bixby who had given five sons in the war . . . Dr. M. C. Palmer delighted the Kiwanians with an interesting account of the beginning of St. Luke's Hospital, and of the Tryon Hospital which he with Dr. Jervey founded, first at the Revenel House, and later in the new offices over Buchanan's 5 & 10c Store, which they operated for about six years before they helped establish the present community hospital . . . A roadside marker is to be placed on Highway 176 near

---Continued on Back Page---

Landrum Philathea Class Met With Mrs. Christopher

The Philadelphia Sunday school class of the First Baptist Church of Landrum met in the home of Mrs. Baylis Christopher, with Mrs. J. K. Nodine assisting.

The hostess used spring flowers with greens to enhance the beauty of her home. African violets were used on the center table.

Mrs. A. J. Mitchell and Mrs. Wade Staggs greeted the guests with fancy, miniature, red hearts inscribed with individual names and Valentine greetings. Mrs. Joseph Lee, teacher, who was a missionary to China, told of interesting experiences that she had while in China. She also passed specimens of clothing that she and her children had worn. She passed other interesting objects, explaining the way the Chinese used and displayed them. Following this informative talk was group singing. Sunshine gifts were exchanged during the social hour. Green and white decorated party squares, Russian tea and candy were served to Mrs. Joseph Lee, Mrs. Fred S. Jackson, Mrs. Yates Gilmore, Mrs. J. W. Littlefield, Mrs. Kermit Bullock, Mrs. Freeman Ashmore, Mrs. C. M. Littlefield Jr., Mrs. H. T. Wright, Mrs. A. J. Mitchell, Mrs. W. H. Staggs, Mrs. Esley McClure, Mrs. R. A. Burress, Mrs. Herbert Brady and Mrs. Arthur Belue, also Misses Pauline Flynn, Eunice Griffin, Mary Lindsey, Maime Cantrell, Lillie Watson and Mays Earle.

The March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Eston Jackson.

PTA party Friday at Oak Hall.