GRAND JURY REPORT

To the Honorable Allen H. Gwynn,
Presiding Judge:

We, the Grand Jury for Polk County, serving during the January term of Superior Court for 1952, have taken action on all bills of indictments presented for our consideration.

We have visited and inspected in a careful manner the following public institutions and properties of Polk County, following are our findings:

County Court House: Exterior woodwork is badly in need of paint. Heating system needs repairs. Following offices need to be re-decorated: Veterans Administration; county commissioners; clerk of court; register of deeds; county superintendent of schools; county agent's and home demonstration agent's offices are in excellent state of repair and condition.

Individual drinking cups should be made available in chambers of the presiding judge.

Health and Welfare Dept: A bad leak over the stairway should be repaired. The stove is in bad condition (grate burned out; cracked stove back) and should be repaired. Walls are in badly need of re-decorating. Rest room needs re-decorating and repair.

State Prison Camp: This camp has just been completed with the exception of grass planting and other landscaping. The buildings are clean, well laid out and maintenance appears to be excellent.

Living quarters excellent.

Areas used for storage, preparation and service of food are clean,
