

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 15 TRYON, N. C.,

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 20, 1952

CURB REPORTER

The Tryon P.T.A. meets Thursday afternoon, 3:15 to hear Supt. J. J. Tarlton. Public invited . . . Anyone desiring tickets for any entertainment at Spartanburg Memorial auditorium may get them from Mrs. Agnes D. Bacon at Blue Ridge Weaverz. This is a special service the Weavers is offering the people of this community. New members of the Spartanburg Civic Music Assn. may join at The Betty Sturgis Shop . . . Paul Black of Spartanburg, a summer resident of Tryon, has been elected president of the national association of peach growers at their annual meeting in St. Joseph, Mich. J. Tracy Gaines, of Inman, former Green Creek principal, was named on the executive committee . . . Mrs. W. M. (Bill) Earley, 79, died early Tuesday morning. Funeral Wednesday 4 p. m., at Piedmont near Rutherfordton. She was a member of Silver Creek in Polk . . . Minnie Brady and Lucy Forrester of Andrum listed as patients in General Hospital . . . Tryon winners in Spartanburg Master tournament Monday included Mrs. Baxter Haynes, 2nd for N-S, G. I. Henderson, 1st, E-W, and J. Feder, 3rd . . . Dr. F. Gelolo McHugh, professor at Duke University, and brother of Mrs. J. S. Kell of Tryon, will be on a nationwide television hook-up this afternoon from 2:45 to 3:30 in a husband and wife interview regarding jealousy of children on the Beyond South and West program . . . Monte Dedman has been appointed by Governor Kerr Scott, to be a justice of the peace in Polk County for a term of four years . . . Gen-

-----Continued on Back Page-----

Officials Named For The Hunter Trials March 15th

Mrs. John Donald is in charge of the Hunter Trials to be held on March 15th and the following events have been announced:

Event No. 1: Young Hunters, open to all horses foaled after January 1st, 1946.

Event No. 2: Working Hunters—ridden by an amateur who is a member or subscriber to a pack of hounds and has hunted his mount with that pack of hounds. Amateurs to ride in hunt livery or hunting attire.

Picnic lunch will be served by Pine Crest Inn.

Event No. 3: Open Hunters—open to all hunters, (Pine Crest Cup).

Event No. 4: Hunt Teams consisting of three hunters. Riders to be in hunt livery or hunting attire.

Mr. Albert P. Hinckley of Orlean, Virginia, has accepted the invitation to judge. Mr. Hinckley is the Master of Foxhounds of the Old Dominion Hounds. Mr. Hinckley maintains a sizeable hunting stable in which is the sire Irish Luck which is used to breed quality hunting horses in that part of Virginia. Mr. Hinckley's pack hunts a rather formidable country and often has guests of the fox hunting members of the foreign legations in Washington.

Mr. Hinckley's experience will enable him to determine readily the type of horse required in the Tryon area.

The night of the Hunter Trials, there will be a Dutch treat supper at Sunnydale.