vol. 15—No. 19 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, FEB. 26, 1952

Weather Monday: high 52, low 34, Rel. Hum. 57. . . Mark last week and Matthew tonight. Ernest Burwell said Dr. Taylor lectured on Mark first because it was written 10 to 15 years before the other three gospels, for which it is a pilot or guide. The Men's Club are inviting the public to hear Dr. Taylor again tonight at the Episcopal Church at 8 o'clock. . . Lent begins Wednesday with Ash Wednesday services at 8 a. m. and 10:30 a. m. at the Episcopal Church and 5 p. m. with union services at the Congregational Church. . . .

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Harry McDonald as head of R. F. C. His smiling picture in today's papers reminds us very much of his charming sister, Mrs. Isabel Knoll, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bennett recently. . . Spartanburg Herald today has picture of James Wofford of Landrum Rt. 2 being awarded Bronze Star Medal for bravery in Korea. . . Mrs. Chas. C. Reakirt is selling tickets for the Spartanburg Junior Follies of March 5. . . So many local people are tops in so many things that nearly every day brings something interesting. POLK NATIVE DIES OF GUN WOUND

Fred A. Owens, 37, of Travelers Rest, Route 3, was fatally wounded Monday afternoon when he was shot in the abdomen with a 12-gauge shotgun, the office of sheriff R. H. Bearden said.

A man listed as Leroy Turner of Travelers Rest Route 3 was arrested for investigation in connection with the shooting.

Chief Deputy Pralo Wood said that Turner turned over a knife to officers, saying Owens had the knife.

Owens, a native of Polk County, N. C., was a resident of the Tiger-ville community and was a veteran of World War II.

Surviving are: his wife, Mrs. Dovie Banks Owens; a daughter, Judy; four sons, Ted, Frankie, Clifton and Donald Lee, all of Travelers Rest Route 3; his father, Andrew Owens, and his step-mother, Mrs. Annie Owens, both of Brevard, N. C.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by the Wood Mortuary of Greer. Spartanburg Herald.

Maj. and Mrs. A. R. Herron have returned to Tryon from a trip to California and Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ford have as guests their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Buskirk and children, Peggy and Karen, of Midland, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sutphin are visiting Mrs. Sutphin's sister, Mrs. J. Frank Richardson at her home on Lake Lanier, having stopped over enroute from Fla. to their home in Rumbley, Md.
