

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

vol. 25—No. 20 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 27 1952

Weather Tuesday: high 47, low 33, rain .31, Rel. Hum. 89 The lecture by Dr. George Taylor has been postponed to next Tuesday night on account of the weather. The beautiful snow that fell yesterday afternoon has almost disappeared this morning. One winter resident remarked that this was one snow that wouldn't do any harm to write about. There will be union Lenten services at the Congregational Church this afternoon at 5 o'clock . . . World Day of Prayer will be held Friday at 3:30 at the same place under the direction of the Tryon Council of Church Women. . . The basketball game between the Edmund Embury School and Hendersonville, scheduled for tonight has been postponed . . . "Call for Dr. Malone" is a familiar voice over radio in this section. A member of the cast, "Ann Malone" in the "Young Dr. Malone" radio play arrived in Tryon today to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willard. She and her husband, Carl Frank of New York City were in this section and decided to visit their friends, the Willards. Mr. Frank is an actor and radio announcer. He recently played the lead in Betty Hutton's show in Theatre Guild radio play. Mrs. Frank has

Continued on Back Page

Nothing Could Be Finer

A movie on the State of North Carolina was shown at Kiwanis Tuesday at Oak Hall, through courtesy of P. L. Barnette, Dr. C. W. McCall had charge of the program and also presented Kermit Cantrell of Columbus who gave two piano selections.

The movie was in technicolor and showed many scenes of the resort sections of the state from the mountains to the coast; also views of farms, cities, industries and many historical landmarks.

David H. Prince and Harold Warrington were inducted into membership in the club by Carroll P. Rogers.

Guests included William A. McFarland of Columbus and Frank Chapman of Charlotte.

50 Red Cross Workers

Over 50 canvassers for the new Red Cross drive will meet tonight at Oak Hall to map out plans for the campaign.

Retires to Tryon

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Marshall who have maintained a home here for many years, will return to Tryon next week to make their "year round" home here. Mr. Marshall is retiring from business in Chicago and will spend his entire time here except for about a month in the fall.

Men's Garden Club Friday

The Men's Garden Club of Tryon will meet Friday night at Oak Hall for dinner and discussion of Roses, President A. R. Herron has returned from California.